

UNCASVILLE

The picnic entertainment given the members of the Women's Home Missionary society at Ocean beach by Mrs. Ralph H. Meier, president, was much enjoyed. Those who attended were: Mrs. Meier, Mrs. Charles C. Tibbets, Mrs. Albert W. Avery, Miss Ruth Long, Mrs. Charles Ramage, Miss Alice Ramage, Mrs. George W. Dart, Mrs. Hubert G. Dart, Miss Elise and Dana Dart, Mrs. John Botham, Mrs. Oscar Church, Miss Ida Church, Mrs. Annie B. Newton, Mrs. Louis G. Newton, Morton Newton, Alice Newton, Mrs. Richard Johnson, Mrs. Charles Watson, Mrs. Hurlbutt, Mrs. Joseph Miller, Mrs. Albert Kellogg and children, Mrs. Joseph Smith, Mrs. Burke Hewitt, Miss May Smith, Mrs. Wallace Potter, Alice and Llewellyn Potter, Mrs. William Beckwith, Mrs. William Vallett, Marion and Donald Vallett, Miss Vera Bartlett. The mothers and children were conveyed to the beach in Mrs. Meier's and Mrs. Avery's automobiles. The others went by trolley.

The Massasoit company at Oakdale, have men at work installing electrical motors and fixtures to run their plant by electricity, instead of steam, as heretofore.

Selectman George H. Bradford with Mrs. Bradford is spending the week on an automobile trip through New England.

Miss Carrie Comstock after a few weeks spent with relatives in Providence and Boston has returned to her home with Mrs. C. A. Chapman at Haughton's.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Church are entertaining at their guest, Miss Alice Newton of Hartford, for a few days.

Miss Agnes Auwood and brother, Earl, are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Palmer of Fall River.

Miss Susan Collins of Westerly has been secured to teach in one of the grades in the school the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Hull entertained at Watch Hill, Sunday, Miss Catherine Collins.

Mrs. Wallace Potter and children, Alice and Llewellyn, spent the week end with friends in New London.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Avery of Hill Top are entertaining their niece, Miss Gladys Morgan of Lyme, for a few days.

Miss May Auwood of New London is spending this week the guest of her cousin, Miss Jessie Bradford.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church have arranged to hold a lawn social on Tuesday evening. An entertaining programme has been arranged by Miss Vera Bartlett, who is in charge. Music will be furnished by the band from Camp DeWey. Those who will assist are: Mrs. Charles Bartlett, Mrs. Mary Newton, Miss Alice Ramage, Miss Marion Hewitt, Miss Alice Hewitt, Miss Arzella Newton, Mrs. Annabell Newton, Miss Fannie Smith, Mrs. Charles Adams, Miss Mary Smith and Miss Ruth Long.

Mrs. Ray Woodmansee has returned to her home after spending a few days with relatives in Gilead.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

James Clark while leading a horse was quite badly hurt about the face. The horse not keeping up as wanted, Mr. Clark struck the animal with the halter rope which caused it to kick. The boy was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. His nose was broken and his face badly cut. He was taken to his home in one of Cran-dall's automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers have returned to their home after spending a vacation in Boston.

What is

A delightful, delicately perfumed bath and toilet powder for individual use

Sprinkled in wash-bowl or bath BO-RAXO makes a rich, cleansing lather that soothes and purifies and keeps the skin clear, soft and healthy. Not merely a toilet luxury—a toilet necessity.

And far better than any soap because it contains pure powdered BORAX which softens the water, opens and cleanses the pores and creates that condition so necessary to a beautiful skin—hygienic cleanliness.

MULE TEAM
BO-RAXO
BATH & TOILET POWDER

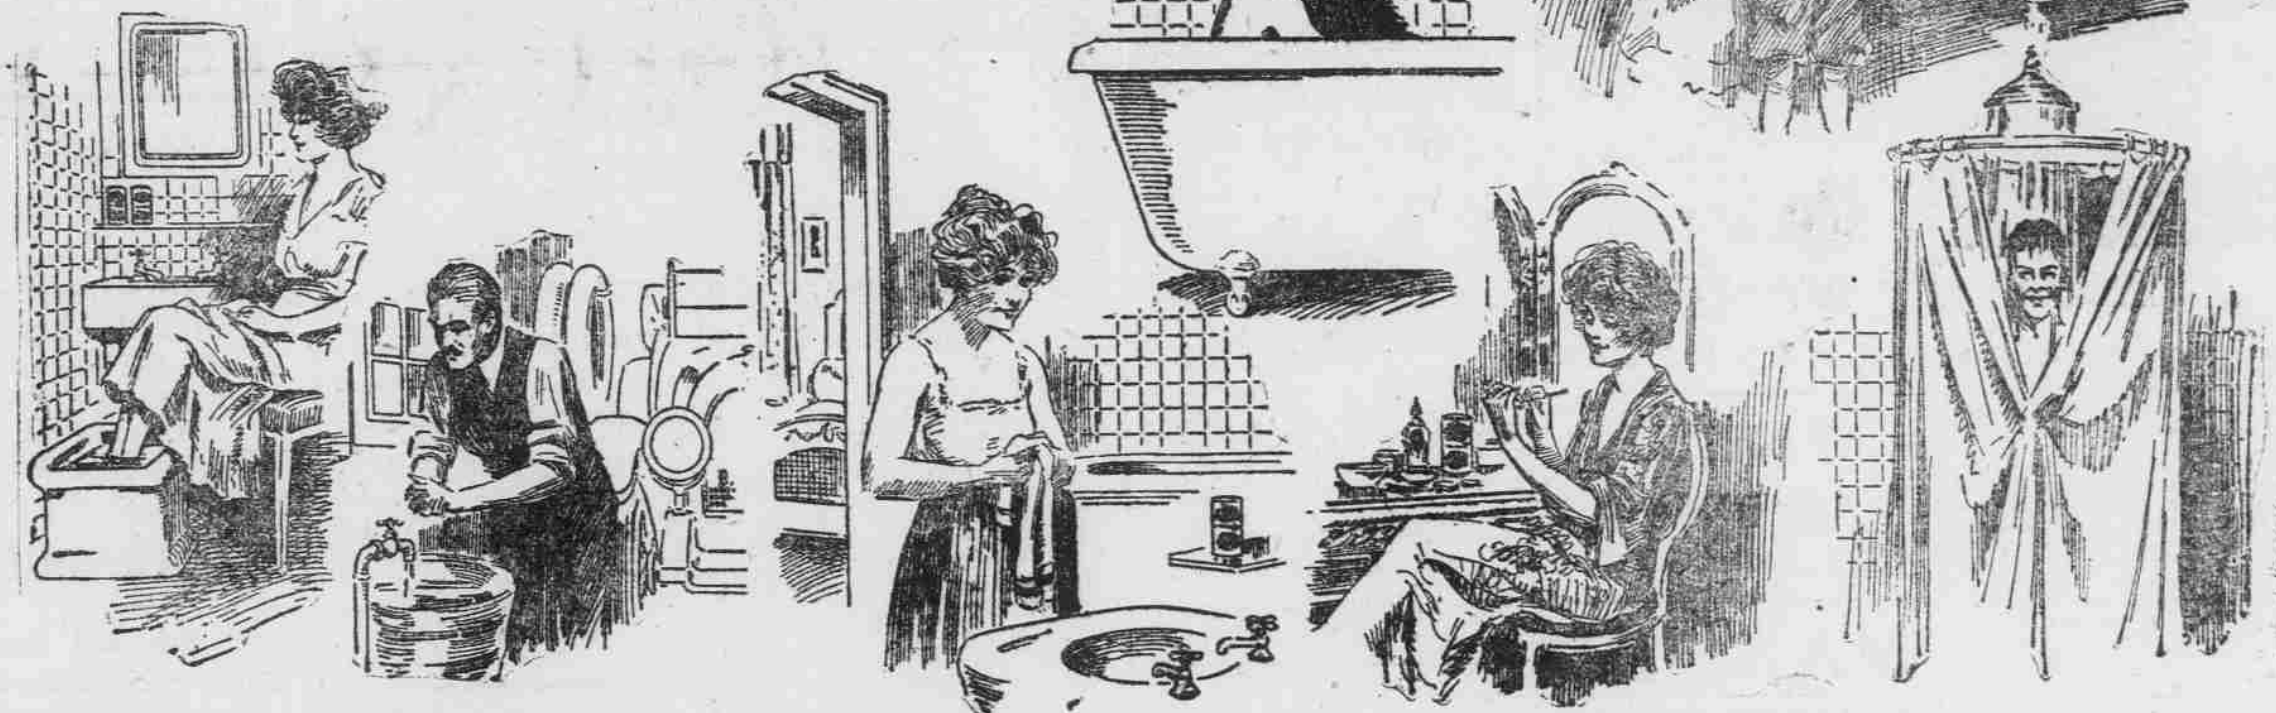

BO-RAXO in its convenient, economical sifter-top can does away with the wasteful and unsanitary soap cake, exposed to dust and disease germs. BO-RAXO destroys all perspiration odors and leaves the skin delicately fragrant and inviting.

The illustrations show a few of the many uses for which nothing equals this delightful toilet requisite. Get a can of your dealer and test it in your bath tonight. The delightful sense of comfort and cleanliness which it gives will be a revelation.

At All Dealers

Sold only in handy, sanitary, sifter-top cans.
Convenient to use and very economical.

15c and 30c

OLD MYSTIC

The party of farmerette students from New York city who have been staying at the Middletown farm house for Quakerette Hill for the past few weeks, and who were employed on some of the farms in the Road Society district, have returned to their home city to prepare for taking up their studies when school reopens.

George W. Harris, crop technologist for the government bureau at Washington, stationed at Baldwinville, N. Y., has returned to his work there after spending his annual vacation here with his family at the Harris homestead.

Paul E. Lamphere returned Monday to his work at the Winchester Fire Arms company of New Haven after spending Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lamphere.

Richard W. Walbridge has returned to Camp Baritan, Metuchen, N. J., after a brief furlough spent here with his parents, Postmaster and Mrs. William S. Walbridge and the Misses Walbridge.

Miss Lillie P. Chipman of Brimwood was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Herbert S. Colt of Pearl street, Mystic.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holloway and children and Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton and son, Cornelius, all of Carolina, were recent guests of relatives at the Holloway homestead.

Ell Boothman, formerly of Old Mystic, is very ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ira Decker of Willow Point.

Mrs. John W. Shank and sons, Johnnie and Willie of Brookside, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood R. Swann of Westport.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Gates of

IF IT IS JUNK

SELL IT TO THE AMERICAN WASTE
& METAL CO.
210 West Main St.
Telephone 190

WELDING WILL FIX IT

Cylinders, Castings of all kinds, Agricultural Implements, Transmissions and Crankshafts, Housings, Steel Frames, Axles and other metal parts of ALL KINDS can be made WHOLE and SOUND with our WELDING.

Skilled, expert work that is guaranteed—try it.
Cave Welding and Mfg. Co.
31 Chestnut Street
Phone 214

Now is the time to find out how good the Falls Auto Paint Shop will paint your auto.

FALLS
AUTO PAINT SHOP
51 Sherman Street

NUXATED IRON

Dr. Postland King, N.Y. City Physician and Medical Author, says physicians should prescribe more nuxated iron—Nuxated Iron for their patients—Nuxated Iron—Nuxated Iron is the greatest cure to the health, strength, vitality and beauty of the modern American woman. Nuxated Iron is a natural, pure, and powerful tonic, and it is the only one which may be taken in any form, and in any quantity, without any harm to the system. It is the only one which may be taken in any form, and in any quantity, without any harm to the system. It is the only one which may be taken in any form, and in any quantity, without any harm to the system.

Providence have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mildred Nell, to John Tindall Riley of Edgewood, R. I.

Rev. and Mrs. Fred Sterling are spending their vacation with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hayes of Meriden.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Desfosse have returned from their honeymoon trip to New York city. They will reside in Old Mystic in the upper tenement of Albert Desfosse's house on Main street.

Miss Charlotte Marchand, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Marchand, was given a miscellaneous shower by a party of her young women friends on a recent evening, in honor of her approaching marriage to Wallace Cook of Hope Valley.

Theodore Johnson has been transferred from Camp Devens at Ayer, Mass., to Camp Greenleaf, Ga.

Herman Rawitter and Miss Teresa Rawitter of New York, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy and family. Mr. Rawitter was here looking after business interests at the plant of the Mystic Woolen company of Old Mystic, being a member of the firm.

William W. Mitchell has been to Greenport, L. I., to attend the funeral of his grandson, who is a son of William W. Mitchell, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Barnes have returned to Oakdale, after an automobile trip to Cape Cod.

Miss Yuna Achey has returned to Gallup Hill, after attending the six weeks' term of the Danbury summer school.

Miss Eliza Wheeler of Groton Long Point, has accepted the position to teach the Burnetts Corners school for the ensuing school year. Miss Wheeler taught the school during the latter part of last year.

Judge Willis E. Heaton returned Monday night to Troy, N. Y., after spending his annual vacation here, with Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Eldridge at River View cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Gates and daughter, Miss Mildred Nell Gates, of Providence, are making their annual visit here at the Holloway homestead.

Mrs. Anna Butterworth of Tampa, Florida, is the guest of Mrs. Horace Frink of Quaquebaug hill.

Miss C. Louis Harris of West Haven, is spending a month's vacation here at the Harris' homestead.

Miss Eleanor Burrows, has been confined to her home the past week by illness.

Miss Florence Johnson has returned from an automobile trip through the white mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Terpenberg of Wappinger's Falls, New York, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ackert at The Maples.

Mrs. Frederick Munnich, of Bridgeport, was the guest Monday night of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Eldridge, at Riverview cottage.

Miss Mary McGuire, has returned to the school for the Deaf, in Albany, N. Y., which is managed by her, after spending the summer's vacation here at the McGuire homestead, in Burnetts Corners district.

CENTRAL VILLAGE

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bragg and Erwin Whitehead are at the White Mountains for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Byles and daughter, of Schenectady, N. Y., have returned home, having visited Mr. Byles' mother, Mrs. Charles Byles.

Charles Dearborn remains in a critical condition. He has not regained consciousness, having had a shock about ten days ago at Moosup where he was employed as a stone letterer. His sister from New London is assisting in caring for him.

The Central Worsted Mill is shut down this week as machinery is being moved and the new addition is being connected.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook and daughter, Eunice, are visiting relatives in New York.

Miss Elizabeth Bourque is spending this week at Crescent Beach.

Raymond Rider has gone to South Carolina, where he is employed as an electrician.

Mrs. James Walsh and two children of Rensselaer, N. Y., have been spending several days at Edward Gallagher's.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edgerton and daughter, Hazel, are spending this week at Quaquebaug Beach.

Mrs. Samuel Collins has been visiting in Providence and Warren, R. I., and Taunton, Mass., the past week.

Miss Charlotte Chesley, stenographer at the Farnsworth, Phinney and Co. office, is spending a week at Pleasant View.

Eugene Collins has been spending a few days at Watch Hill.

Misses Bessie and Roby Peck of Briggs' Corner, Mass., have been spending several days with their aunt, Mrs. Raymond Rider.

Earl Collins has been at Watch Hill for a few days.

H. Elmer Lewis returned from a week's stay with Everett Dawson at Buttonwoods, R. I.

Miss Elizabeth Barber is spending two weeks with relatives in Rhode Island.

Norman White of Brookline, Mass., has been spending a few days at the Sugar Brook Farm.

Mrs. William Doty of Boston has been visiting Mr. Charles Day.

Several men from the Brooklyn jail have been here the past week unloading coal from the cars for the Farnsworth, Phinney Co. Eleven car loads arrived for the company and several extra teams have been carting it. Mrs. William Carpenter is entertaining three grandchildren from Day's.

Mrs. Raymond Carpenter and daughter, Dorothy, are visiting at the home of Mr. Carpenter's sister, Mrs. Esther Dowd at Russell, Mass.

Mrs. Israel Seguin has been visiting several days at the home of her brother, Joseph Levalley in Danfelson.

Miss Miriam Chapman has been visiting Mrs. Jennie Frink at Jamestown, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxine Coutu are entertaining their daughter and family of West Warren, Mass.

Miss Hazel Walsh of Lawrence, Mass., is visiting at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gallagher are entertaining relatives from New York.

Fred North was injured Saturday afternoon while at work at the Central Worsted Mill. He was hit in the face by a timber. He went to the office of Dr. James L. Gardner, who took a stitch to close the wound.

Carl Trudeau of Moosup is spending this week with his aunt, Miss Mary Bouque.

Miss Nettie Still returned Saturday to her home in Potter Hill, having spent a week at Arthur Bradley's.

Miss Minnie Newport has returned to her home, after an absence of five years for the benefit of her health, which is much improved.

Cook William Shaughnessy of Camp DeWey spent Sunday at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cushing of Providence, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Connell and daughter, of Pawtucket, were guests Saturday at John Fletcher's.

Mrs. Leon Allard of Pomfret has been the guest of her cousin, Miss Clara Fletcher.

Mr. and Mrs. Hosea Geer, of Wickford were Saturday visitors here, where they formerly lived.

Israel Seguin and daughters, the Misses Rose and Beatrice Seguin, were at Pleasant View the past week.

Charles Lester of Providence spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy.

Ernest Barr of Lawrence, Mass., was a Sunday guest at Joseph Farland's.

Henry Longbeam of Camp Devens spent Sunday at his home.

George Keene of Providence visited relatives Saturday.

Benjamin Dawson returned Sunday night from a week's stay at Buttonwoods, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Joyce of Moosup and relatives Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McShane of Moosup were Sunday visitors at John Graham's.

GALES FERRY

The All-Star Minstrels gave an entertainment at the Gales Ferry country club house on Saturday evening.

Characters followed: Capt. Hall, Mrs. D. Henderson, Hydrofobia, John Macaluso, Sambo, Herd, H. Corey, Interlocutor, Walter Dumont, Skinning, Horace E. Perry, Rastus, Malcolm Burton, Chorus—Bruce T. Dumont, Lawrence Price, Donald H. Dumont, Gordon Peck, Pianist, Miss Dorothy Wolf.

Henry H. Hurlbutt has received word of the safe arrival of their son, Corporal Carroll S. Hurlbutt, on the other side. He called from New York a short time ago and is a member of the Fourth company, one hundred and fifty-eighth infantry regiment. He had been in training for many months at Camp Kearney, California, entering the service with the men from Arizona, while he was employed in a copper mine.

Rev. John Barstow and Mrs. Barstow of the Congregational church of Norfolk, Conn., have been the recent guests of their daughter, Mrs. E. A. Patterson and Y. M. C. A. Secretary Patterson of the submarine base at Brown's Crossing. They made the journey in their automobile and were going to Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Mathewson of Pittsfield, Mass., were guests last week of Mr. Mathewson's sister, the Misses Mathewson of the village.

BRIEF STATE NEWS

Bridgeport.—Tax Commissioner Arthur P. Connor has discovered 86 houses in Bridgeport have not been paying any taxes and the whole value represents a tax of approximately $2,000,000. Most of the houses are in the rear of other houses and how the property owners were able to evade their taxes is something a great many citizens are unable to fathom.

Waterbury.—Papers have been filed at Waterbury showing that the Mohican company has been defendant in a suit brought by Martin W. Mullin, an administrator of the estate of the late John Joseph Carberry, the 10-year old boy who was killed by falling into an elevator shaft on the leased premises of the defendant company, in the rear of its store. The accident took place on May 14, 1913, and